Senior citizens' body holds meeting

SAS NAGAR: The general body meeting of Federation of Senior Citizen's Associations' Punjab (FEDESN) was held at SAS Nagar Club, Phase-II here on Saturday. More than 60 members, including presidents of 21 associations from across the state attended the meeting. The members spoke on non-implementation of state policy for senior citizens, which is at draft stage since 2009. The federation also decided to approve the governing body's decision for state-level campaign to promote formation of senior citizen associations/councils in all cities, towns and villages in the state. Federation president AS Khehra was also present on the occasion.
